

HAPPIEST GIRL IN TOWN—This lovely lady is enchanted by an array of gifts from Ruth Davis' Gift and Accessory Shop on El Prado in downtown Torrance. The 32-ounce decanter of Mary Chess cologne is $45. Other unusual items include tote bags, sachets, powder brushes, cosmetic kits and clocks. —Press Photo

for and about Women

Joan Briggs, Woman's Editor

Telephone FAirfax 8-2345

CHRISTMAS ACTORS—Stephen M. White students, Eleanor Hacker (left), Jack Carter and John Vanatta, rehearse roles in "The Strange Night," to be presented tonight at the school's PTA Christmas party. —Press Photo

MRS. JAMES H. PAGET —Photo by Seeman

Mary Carolyn Wood Bride of J. H. Paget

Miss Mary Carolyn Wood became the bride of James H. Paget Saturday in a double-ring ceremony at First Christian Church. Rev. H. Milton Sippel officiated.

Mrs. Paget is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll D. Wood, 22809 Ocean Ave. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Paget of 1329 Arlington Ave.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of lace and satin, fashioned on empire lines. A pearl tiara held her fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Richard Bolton was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Kathy Wright and Nancy Paget. All were attired in yellow peau de soie and carried bouquets of yellow roses.

Mrs. Wood, mother of the bride, wore beige silk shantung with coco-brown accessories. The bridegroom's mother was in pale gray sheath with matching jacket and white accessories. Melody Lane was flower girl; Johnny Friberg was ring bearer. Joel Friberg served as best man. Ushers included Jerrell Wood and Joe Paget.

The couple welcomed guests at a reception in the Masonic Temple following the service.

Mrs. Paget attended Torrance High School and El Camino College. She is employed by the First Western Bank of Torrance.

Her husband also graduated from Torrance High and is now with the U.S. Army in the Panama Zone.

After a wedding trip to Blythe on the Colorado River, the couple will reside at 25909 1/2 Narbonne Ave., Lomita. Mr. Paget will return to active service early in January.

MRS. LYLE LEROY GREEN —Photo by Seeman

Double-Ring Rite Unites Linda Ellett, Lyle Green

Junior bridesmaid, Leland Green, Linda Rose Ellett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Jerold Ellett, 1502 W. 220th St. became the bride of Lyle Leroy Green in a double-ring ceremony Friday at Wayfarer's Chapel, Portuguese Bend.

Mr. Green is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elgie Green, 1556 W. 226th St.

The bride-elect, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white slipper-satin featuring a Chantilly lace bodice. A crown of seed pearls secured her veil. She carried white orchids and stephanotis on a white Bible.

Janice Green, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Robin Ellett was her sister's served as best man. Mrs. Ellett, mother of the bride, wore beige felt with white accessories. Mrs. Green was in a pink sheath. After the service, guests were welcomed at a reception in the bride's home. The couple went to Las Vegas on their wedding trip and are now at home at 1816 Andros St.

Mrs. Green was graduated from Notre Dame des Victoires in San Francisco and attended Zweegman School for Medical Secretaries. Her husband attended Narbonne High School and El Camino College. He is employed by Minneapolis Honeywell in Gardena.

Tip to Toe

By Sylvia Miller
Fashion Editor

Baubles and Bangles
Girls, be smart! Leave this column where an unsuspecting but loving male will stumble over it. If you want to be really cagy underline a few especially desirable items. Then walk innocently away, and prepare for the merriest of all Christmases!

Because . . . we've discovered Ruth Davis' Gift Shop, the home of beautiful baubles, bangles, beads, and deliciously gifty items to quicken the stoniest feminine heart.

Like; bracelets that grandma couldn't tell from her precious antiques, because they're either slim and plain in "silver" or "gold," or rhinestoned like diamonds by that master costume jeweler, Hobe.

Or; handsomely modern ones of basket weave long silver links with earrings to match. And others that sparkle with the radiance of northern lights. All fantastically well priced from $2 up. Gold and pearl earrings dangle alluringly, and necklaces have a mad abundance of style and glitter. We loved especially a long, Kismet-like chain, heavily jeweled and fringed which ties to any length . . . at $13.50. And . . . a flat, gilt baroque necklace of links encrusted with colored stones at $15.50. And . . . a great cocktail ring of jade-like stones and gilt with an incredibly real look at the incredibly low price of $4.

And Bags
We found bags that can be stuffed but are never stuffy. Charming hand painted, sturdy plastic boxes that can do double-duty as jewelry boxes in winter and traveling companions to your prettiest silks and cottons in spring and summer.

And talk about traveling . . . there are fitted travel cosmetic kits by nationally famed Trina (from $1 to $5) of zippered, plasticized moire silk in pastel shades good enough to eat.

And . . . huge travel-tote bags in plastic that looks like leather. These start at $10 . . . and will not only go everywhere but they'll carry everything!

And for beach or baby . . . fun bags in fully water proof, plastic-lined canvas that carry the boldly printed legend, "And man worthy of the name is only too willing to make a fool of himself for the sake of a woman."

Best Of All
Belly up to Ruth's fabulous perfume bar . . . and catch a whiff of the world's most fabulous smells. From purse sprays at $5 (so you'll never be caught out without your favorite) to the incredible but real, mammoth bottle of White Shoulders at $2500 . . . that was twenty-five hundred . . . there is a special scent for every special gal in town. And even some for men, like Executive, Moustache and Snuff . . . masculine and mouth watering!

And best of all, Ruth and her staff are a-quiver with the desire to help the bewildered male in need of advice . . . and to wrap his gifts so prettily that Missy will feel beautiful and desired at once . . . from tip to toe!

Holiday Party Benefits Tots in East Asia

The Torrance Woman's Club, District 18, CFWC, celebrated the holiday season yesterday with a benefit Christmas party for the children of Hong Kong and Viet-Nam.

As part of the CARE Dollar a Scholar program to supply east-Asian children with educational kits, members decorated the club Christmas tree with fluted dollars.

Each dollar buys one kit containing pencils, textbooks, and writing paper which will enable a child to attend school. A message of friendship from the donor is also included.

Mrs. Godfrey Nelson, publicity chairman, said that the charity is part of a two-year project undertaken by the CFWC in cooperation with the CARE Self-Help program.

She explained that education is the basic need in underdeveloped lands. It has to reach everyone, from the student in the classroom to the men and women in the villages.

It has to take every form, from the techniques of reading and writing to better health and greater productivity.

"Self respect," she added, "is as important to the poorest peasant overseas as it is to us in America."

Honored guests at the event were board members of the Junior Woman's Club. A pot-luck luncheon was served at 12:30 p.m.

Entertainment was provided by Mmes. James Burchett and W. J. Laughlin in a program of seasonal music.

Stephen White Yule Program This Evening

Stephen M. White PTA members will view a play entitled "The Strange Night" and hear a program of holiday music at their yuletide meeting tonight at 7:30 p.m.

The play will be presented by the school drama department under the direction of Mayme Hickman. Included in the cast are Eleanor Hacker, Diana Geruc, Galen Spafford, Miles Sumner, Jack Carter, Max Allen, David Eldridge and John Bradey.

George Papazian will direct the school orchestra and Fred Wilkins will direct the mixed glee in seasonal selections. The evening will conclude with a community sing of favorite carols.

FILM FETE SCHEDULED FOR JANUARY

Mmes. Edward London and Donald Finkelstein, members of the Sisterhood of Temple Menorah, will sponsor a foreign film festival next month to benefit the Sisterhood's project for the year, the Temple's religious school.

Attractions will include "Rashomon," Jan. 9th; "Laughter Thru Tears," Jan. 30th; "Panther Panchali," Feb. 27th; "Day of Wrath," April 2nd; "Father Brown Detective," April 23; and "Tortment," May 21st.

The films will be shown at the Temple, 112 N. Catalina Ave., Redondo Beach. For discount subscription tickets call FR 8-4617, FR 5-0748.

BAND AIDS—Members of Girl Scout Troop 2000, Gwen Mills (left), Marty Lehr, Karen Trygstad, Susan Johnson, Sandra Olsen and Lenore Mormino, present a $50 check to John Friedman of Torrance Area Youth Band for new band banner.

B'nai B'rith Slate Lomita Club 591 Party, Style Show Names Officers

Hollypark B'nai B'rith Women will hold a chanukah party and fashion show, 8:00 p.m. Monday, at 416 Birch Ave., Hawthorne.

Fashions will be modeled by members of the chapter. Styles shown will be available for purchase that evening.

Special refreshments will be served. Mrs. Leonard Fruchter is program chairman. Mrs. Albert

Lomita Club 591 Names Officers

Winnie Flagg was elected president of the Lomita 591 Club at a Christmas buffet luncheon Thursday.

Other officers named were Cora Garcelan, vice-president; Phyllis Hamilton, secretary; and Jane Horton, treasurer.

Parks is president. The event is open to the public. Admission is 50 cents.